No data is stored or processed outside the territory of the European Union, in accordance with the requirements of the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR).

Article 4 — Intellectual Property

All elements constituting the Attimo Platform (structure, design, texts, logos, graphics, source code, database, etc.) are protected by French and international laws relating to intellectual property.

These elements are the exclusive property of Frédéric Gras (Attimo). Any reproduction, representation, modification, publication, adaptation or exploitation of all or part of these elements, by whatever means or process, is strictly prohibited without the prior written authorization of Frédéric Gras.

Regarding content uploaded by photographer users (photographs, logos, texts): each photographer remains the holder of the rights relating to their own content and remains fully responsible for it. Attimo only has a technical license to use the content, limited to the provision of the service, in accordance with the Terms of Service.

Article 5 — Personal Data Protection

The Attimo Platform processes personal data as part of providing the SaaS service to its clients (photographers) and, by delegation, in the context of photography galleries accessible to end clients (buyers).

5.1 Data Controllers

Attimo (Frédéric Gras) acts as data controller for the data of subscribed photographers (account, billing, platform usage).

Each photographer acts as data controller for the data of the end clients of their galleries (buyers, orders). Attimo intervenes as data processor within the meaning of Article 28 of the GDPR.

5.2 GDPR Standards Applied to All Users

Regardless of the user's country of residence, Attimo applies European GDPR standards as the highest benchmark for personal data protection. Users located outside the European Union benefit from these standards by contractual extension, in addition to any mandatory rights granted by their local jurisdiction (such as CCPA in California, PIPEDA in Canada, or the Privacy Act in Australia).

5.3 Rights of Data Subjects

In accordance with Regulation (EU) 2016/679 (GDPR) and the French Data Protection Act of January 6, 1978 as amended, any data subject has the following rights:

- Right of access (Article 15 GDPR)
- Right to rectification (Article 16 GDPR)
- Right to erasure (Article 17 GDPR)
- Right to restriction of processing (Article 18 GDPR)
- Right to data portability (Article 20 GDPR)
- Right to object (Article 21 GDPR)

To exercise these rights, please send your request to: info@attimo-gallery.com. A maximum response time of one month will be respected from receipt of the request.

5.4 Complaint to the Supervisory Authority

If, after contacting us, you believe that your rights are not being respected, you may file a complaint with the French Data Protection Authority (CNIL — Commission Nationale de l'Informatique et des Libertés), which is the supervisory authority competent for Attimo:

Website: https://www.cnil.fr
Address: 3 place de Fontenoy, TSA 80715, 75334 Paris Cedex 07, France
Phone: +33 1 53 73 22 22

Users residing outside France may also contact the supervisory authority of their own country.

For more information on how Attimo processes your personal data, please consult our Privacy Policy.

Article 6 — Cookies

The Attimo Platform uses cookies and similar technologies to ensure the proper functioning of the service, improve the user experience and carry out anonymized audience measurements.

In accordance with the European ePrivacy Directive and the recommendations of the CNIL, cookies that are not strictly necessary for the operation of the service are subject to your prior consent.

You can manage your cookie preferences at any time via the cookie management banner available on the Platform, or by configuring your browser.

For any additional information, please consult our Cookie Policy.

Article 7 — Liability

7.1 Service Availability

Attimo strives to ensure the availability of the Platform 24/7. However, access to the Platform may be interrupted at any time, particularly for reasons of maintenance, updates or force majeure.

Attimo cannot be held liable for damages resulting from the temporary unavailability of the Platform.

7.2 Photographer Content

The content published on galleries by photographers (photographs, texts, prices, descriptions) is their sole responsibility. Attimo, as host of this content within the meaning of French Law No. 2004-575 of June 21, 2004 on Trust in the Digital Economy (LCEN), cannot be held liable for content published by photographers, as long as it has not had effective knowledge of it or has acted promptly to remove it when notified.

7.3 Hyperlinks

The Platform may contain links to third-party websites. Attimo exercises no control over these sites and declines any responsibility regarding their content or the data protection practices implemented therein.

Article 8 — Applicable Law and Jurisdiction

This Legal Notice is governed by French law.

In case of dispute relating to the use of the Platform, and in the absence of amicable resolution within thirty (30) days from notification of the dispute, the parties agree to submit their dispute to the competent jurisdictions within the territorial scope of the Versailles Court of Appeal (Cour d'Appel de Versailles), France.

For any dispute relating to a consumer contract (B2C), the consumer may resort to mediation in accordance with French Order No. 2015-1033 of August 20, 2015.

Article 9 — Updates to the Legal Notice

This Legal Notice may be modified at any time, particularly to comply with any new legal or regulatory provision.

The date of the last update is indicated at the top of this document. It is recommended to consult this page regularly.
